ited, on last Monday afternoon, by a very heavy thunder storm. The rain fell in tor rents, and the artillery of heaven appeared to be let loose in all its fury. The waters were higher than we ever knew them to be, forcing their way into cellurs and even into a couple of dwelling bouses.

During the storm the house of Dr. Chas. A Bengel was struck by lightning, fortunately, however, doing little damage besides injuring the roof of the building. The miraculous escape of the inmates of the house was truly wonderful. The Dr. was sitting in that parof the building in which is his drug store, and received a slight shock, but, although the breech was torp from a fowling piece, which was standing in the house, and a cat, sitting 76 and 77 near the stove, was killed, yet none of the family were injured. With Triple Setts of Crushers and Double Grinding Surfaces The unparalelled success of the Little Giant during more than three years, time, indue 2 the Proprietors to consider it no longer an experiment, but a permanent and most decided "Institution" Its varue to Farmers and Feeders became patent at an early period of its existence, and the demand for it was commensurate with its excellencies. Like all other articles however, of sufficient merit to attract attention, it was soon beset with a growd of opponents, detractors and imitators, all eager to sun themselves in the sunshine of its reputation, and latten on its hard-carned fame. Met and vanquished at one point, they sprang up in another, with an much vitality, apparently as it possessed with the nine lives of the cat. There is not on, of the Linke Giant's imitators which it has not beaten, whenever and wherever a fair test nd trial has been obtained; and not one that dare meet it fair and square in trial of merits at At the State Pair of the following States, the past season, the First Premium was awarded the Little Cant, viz:-ILLINOIS, IOWA, MISSOURI, KENTUCKY. Appended is an extract from a Report of the trial at the Iowa State Fair, at Museati,

"The Corn and Cob Mills were represented by the Little Giant, Excelsion Young America, and Star Mills, and an animated contest took place for the set of silver plates which had been placed at the disposal of the Society by James B. Cladwick, of St. Louis. In fifteen revolu-The "Little Grant," Une and three-fourths bushels Corn and Cob Meal.
"Excelsior Young America," Seven-eights of one bushe ! "Star Mill," Five-eighths of one bushel, "
The Committee manimously awarded the premium to the "Little Glant,"
SOME OF ITS MANY ADVANTAGES ARE:

 Incerased capacity, with diminished diameter, by the use of double cones, thus scenomising the power employed, and spending the wear over so great a surface that it is hardly perceptible; even after grinding many thousand bushels.
 No oil or grease is required on any part of the machine, thus avoiding the pessibility damage by careless attendance.

3. The Lever is attached to a separate piece or "driver," thus relieving the Mill from itation caused by the weight of levers, and irregular strains when they are attached the grinding shell, as in other Mills,

 The substitution of a strong box in place of legs, thus removing the liability of breakage of legs and, at the same time, furnishing a sale reservoir for meal, without additional expenses 5. The superiority of the cob breaking and crushing arrangement, enabling us to do a large rion of the work near the centre of the Mill, thereby saving power. The great strength which is secured by the peculiar shape and arrangement of the whole, together with freedom from breakage or damage to the granding parts, when mails sticks, bricks, pebbles, or other hard substances liable to be found among corn, accidentally flud their way into the Mill—a perfection arrived at from long experience in the composition ot metal for this particular use,

7. Last, but by no means least, it is not injured by being allowed to run on pty.

To give the farmers some idea of the durability of this Mill we give one certificate amongst the thousands which we receive of equal merit and from men of the highest state Read the following:

Hedges, Free & Co. (successors to Scott & Hedges.) Cincinnati, Ohio.

GENTS:—I lease send us by Steamer Sciots, one of your fifty dollar Little Giant Mills and charge to our account. We got a piece of Pig Iron into the mill purchased from Resert, Scots & tiedges last year and broke it. It had ground $2.000 bushels of corn and cob meel, and when we broke it, it was doing just as good work as ever. Please send immediately, and while sours.
